COOKIES POLICY

Welcome! We use the following cookies and other tracking devices to enhance your online experience and our services: functionality for checking if cookies are enabled to provide appropriate user experience; audience measurement to measure the audience of our site; We recommend that you keep all these cookies, but if you do not agree, you can easily modify them by clicking on the button "Cookie Settings". You will find all the details in our Cookie Policy. We also process certain personal data via cookies such as your clicking behaviour on our website. For more information on how we process your personal data please consult our Privacy Policy.

The consent management platform must give the user the opportunity to give consent, at a minimum, by cookie category (see below). As long as the visitor has not taken any positive action to indicate his or her acceptance, the message must remain visible and no "non-functional" cookies may be installed and/or read.

WHAT KIND OF CONSENT?

- Freely given consent: the practice of blocking access to a website or mobile application for those who do not consent to be tracked ("cookie walls") is not in compliance with the GDPR. The user must be able to provide independent and specific consent for each distinct purpose;
- Unambiguous consent: consent must be expressed through positive action by the person who has been informed in advance of the consequences of his or her choice and has the means to exercise it. Continuing to browse a web site/use a mobile application does not constitute clear positive actions amounting to valid consent. Similarly, the use of pre-ticked boxes cannot be considered as a clear positive act of giving consent;
- Proof of consent: You must be able to demonstrate that you have obtained valid consent from the person concerned before installing or reading cookies. This proof may be provided, in particular, by means of logs (via a cookie, for example).

Fragrance Oils or its affiliates and subsidiaries (hereinafter referred to as "Fragrance Oils", "we", "us", "our"), are committed to protecting and respecting your privacy (hereinafter referred to as "you", "your", "yours").

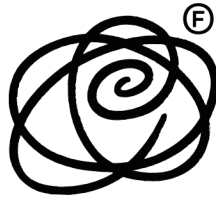

As such, Fragrance Oils protects the personal data of its customers, prospects, partners, suppliers, users/visitors online collected through cookies, tags, tracers (generally speaking: "cookies") and treats them with the utmost care.
