MODERN SLAVERY STATEMENT

FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR 2023/2024

OUR SUPPLIERS

The Fragrance Oils Group of Companies operates a supplier policy and maintains a preferred supplier list.

In accordance with section 54(4) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015, Fragrance Oils has contacted (or attempted to contact) all first tier suppliers to set out our zero-tolerance stance on modern slavery and to ensure that slavery and/or human trafficking is not taking place.

Fragrance Oils has not, to its knowledge, conducted any business with another organisation which has been found to have involved itself with slavery and/or human trafficking.

Fragrance Oils believes its exposure to modern slavery to be limited. Nonetheless, it has taken steps to ensure that such practices do not take place in its business or the business of any organisation that supplies goods and/or services to it.

Modern slavery is a complex phenomenon, and our risk assessment is intended to give us an insight into the supply chain in order that we can plan, if necessary, appropriate action.

With regard to new suppliers, all new suppliers are asked due diligence questions to determine the steps that they take to eliminate slavery and human trafficking from their supply chain. This forms part of the evaluation criteria behind our selection of new suppliers.

In the operation of its business, Fragrance Oils main supply chains are those related to the provision of raw materials and services.

OUR POLICIES

Within the Fragrance Oils organisation, the Givaudan Principles of Conduct is a governing charter for ethical behaviour including:

We believe in fair employment standards and do not tolerate or practice any form of child exploitation or forced labour, or engaged with suppliers who do not adhere to a strict anti-slavery policy.

Disclosure and Transparency Policy. We encourage all our employees, contractors and workers to come forward with any concerns regarding how colleagues are being treated, practices within our business or supply chain or any violations against any policy operated by us without fear of retaliation or reprisal. If our employees do not feel comfortable contacting their local compliance officer or legal department, they are encouraged to use the Givaudan Compliance Helpline which is confidential and operated in every Company language.
